

Teachers and Professionals

Key Online Safety Resources

Childnet have a dedicated area to support teachers and professionals with advice, guidance and teaching resources.

childnet.com

Childnet Resource Hub

Filter by audience, topic or resource type to browse our selection of free online safety resources.

childnet.com/resources

Developing a curriculum

Education for a Connected World maps the digital knowledge and skills that young people should have at different ages and stages of their lives.

Search online for 'Education for a Connected World framework'

ProjectEVOLVE provides free resources mapped to all statements in the Education for a Connected World Framework.

projectevolve.co.uk

Tools to share with families

The Family Gaming Database shares research and advice on thousands of video game, including content warnings and PEGI ratings.

familygamingdatabase.com

Common Sense Media provides expert reviews, advice and age-appropriate recommendations on games, apps, films and more. Users can access up to three free reviews per month.

commonsensemedia.org

Parental controls and privacy settings described step-by-step alongside support on a range of online safety topics.

internetmatters.org

Advice on key online issues, resources, training and blogs from partners: Childnet, SWGfL and the IWF.

saferinternet.org.uk

Professionals Online Safety Helpline

0344 381 4772*

*Calls cost the same as standard landline starting '01' or '02'. If your phone tariff offers inclusive calls to landlines, calls to 0345 numbers will also be included.

UK Council for Internet Safety

Guidance including safeguarding advice on nudes and semi-nudes, and victim blaming.

gov.uk/ukcis

helpline@saferinternet.org.uk

Supporting professionals working with children and young people, with any online safety issue they may be having.

saferinternet.org.uk/professionals-online-safety-helpline

Making a report

In most settings, an online safety concern should first be escalated via your usual safeguarding procedures. Visit childnet.com/teachers-help for more information.

Report Harmful Content is a national reporting centre offering advice and links to industry reporting tools. It also provides support by reviewing outcomes after a report has been made on a platform or app.

reportharmfulcontent.com

Report suspected online child sexual abuse or grooming to the Child Exploitation and Online Protection command (CEOP).

ceop.police.uk

Report online child sexual abuse images and videos with the Internet Watch Foundation's anonymous reporting tool.

iwf.org.uk

Specialist services who help with the removal of nude images showing under 18s from the internet (report should be made by the person in the image).

childline.org.uk/remove (UK only) takeitdown.ncmec.org (Global)

Remember to visit saferinternetday.org.uk to join the celebrations every February! We provide free resources, tips and more.

There are lots of organisations working to make the internet safer for children and young people.

Find free advice, resources and more:

Want to stay up to date?

Sign up for the Childnet newsletter via our website to hear about our latest resources, blogs and more.

childnet.com/signup

 @childnet

 @childnetinternational

